

Please help my family have the peace and privacy entitled as an American Citizen. We appreciate our evenings together and resent any unsolicited telemarketing call. This includes radio and TV stations. With the many television guides available, we can freely decide what programming we are interested in seeing.

Thank you for your support and ask that you will reverse the exemption of Radio and TV for telemarketing calls.

Thank you.